

Females are currently housed in:

Cornton Vale
Edinburgh
Grampian
Greenock
Polmont

85%

Have undertaken work whilst in prison

82% reported that work undertaken in prison helped them learn to work with other people.

Two women, with an Officer, care for 19 laying hens and two roosters within HMP Edinburgh.

At Cornton Vale 17
partners offer work placements within the local community, with 11 women on these placements.

30 out of the 53
women in Greenock are engaged in some form of education ranging from basic literacy and numeracy to Open University
studies.

Capacity:

Cornton Vale	309
Edinburgh	112
Grampian	52
Greenock	54
Polmont	135

Current Population

Cornton Vale	94
Edinburgh	90
Grampian	48
Greenock	52
Polmont	94

Work Opportunities at Edinburgh

- Hairdressers
- Woodcraft
- Life Skills
- Reception
- Canteen

Work Opportunities at Greenock

- Laundry
- Timber
- Production Workshop
- Hairdressers
- Catering

At Cornton Vale
around 206
educational qualifications
were delivered by New College Lanarkshire last year. Subjects include Literacy, Numeracy, Life
Skills kitchen, Citizenship,
communications,
Film and Media, Arts & Craft and Open Learning.

Work Opportunities at Grampian

- Extensive educational opportunities through Fife College
- Bike repair workshop (for a local charity and so providing an opportunity for restorative practice)
- N-Ergy Telephone contact centre
- Banff gardens and cultivation of vegetables.
- Staffing of visit room tea bar.
- Various pass jobs throughout the establishment
- Sycamore Tree programme

Work Opportunities at Cornton vale:

- Horticulture
- Hairdressers
- Catering
- Industrial cleaners
- Laundry Services
- Craft Workshop (producing items for sale)
- Re-cyc-a-bike repairing and maintaining bikes for the local community