

DIRECTION

Extradition to United Kingdom to Serve Sentence in United Kingdom (Credit for Time in Custody Awaiting Extradition) Direction 2013

Made - 9 December 2013

The Scottish Ministers make the following Direction in exercise of the powers conferred by section 40(2) of the Prisons (Scotland) Act 1989 and all other powers enabling them to do so.

Citation and Commencement

1 This Direction may be cited as the Extradition to United Kingdom to Serve Sentence in UK (Credit for Time in Custody Awaiting Extradition) Direction 2013 and comes into force on 16 December 2013.

Persons unlawfully at large

2 Paragraphs 3 and 4 apply where –

(a) a person is extradited to the United Kingdom from a category 1 territory for the purpose of serving a term of imprisonment, a committal or another form of detention mentioned in section 40(2) of the Prisons (Scotland) Act 1989, and

(b) the person was for any time kept in custody in that territory with a view to their extradition (and not for any other reason).

3 Scottish Ministers direct, under section 40(2) of the aforementioned Act, that account shall be taken of that time in calculating the period for which the person is liable to be detained or the date on or by which a term or period of imprisonment or detention elapses or has been served.

4 In paragraph 2 above, the reference to 'a category 1 territory' means a territory designated under the Extradition Act 2003 for the purposes of Part 1 of that Act.

This Direction, consisting of this and the preceding page, is subscribed as follows –
